

A magnetic new, Mayfair destination

PROPERTY

Since 1756, Cambridge House has been the home where the great and the glorious gather. The centuries old landmark, which has welcomed tastemakers and world shapers throughout its rich history, now reimagined as London's most magnetic, experience-led luxury hotel and social gathering place.

Thoughtfully renewed by renowned designers Jean-Louis Deniot and Laura Gonzalez, its transformation at 94 Piccadilly captures the true spirit of London, creating a captivating new destination in Mayfair for both Londoners and international guests.

The most highly anticipated opening of 2026, Cambridge House continues a new chapter of its legacy.

LOCATION

Nestled in the heart of Mayfair, between the serenity of Green Park and the vibrant Shepherd Market, the 102-room hotel and social club is a stone's-throw from London's iconic historic landmarks and world-class culture, culinary and retail destinations.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Cambridge House is one of the rare 18th-century townhouses to have withstood London's ever-changing rhythm. Meticulously restored and reimagined by Jean-Louis Deniot, it unfolds into 102 rooms and 23 suites of sublime grandeur.

Its centerpiece: six historic suites each uniquely designed, incorporating rich in details inspired by the homes former residents. Combined together, they form one of London's most magnificent 6,000 sq ft Piano Nobile — a stage for light, scale, and elegance.

Above it all, the 8,500 sq ft Fleming House penthouse offers a private roof garden and sweeping views across Green Park to the London skyline.

DINING

Cambridge House will offer a kaleidoscope of venues including Major's, the signature restaurant in partnership with Major Food Group— due to be the new epicentre of London's ever-evolving dining scene, brings mid-century flair to a stately ballroom with an adjacent open air courtyard.

The Drawing Rooms of the home offer all-day drinks, dining and afternoon tea. For evening and late-night revelry, The Reuben Bar with its cigar lounge serves flawlessly crafted cocktails with a daring twist, here classic elegance meets a rebellious edge.

WELLNESS

A new era of wellbeing arrives in London with the opening of Baeden House, Wellbeing by Auberge. Rooted in Britain's ancient healing traditions, shaped by the rituals of the Roman bathhouse, and guided by Auberge Collection's philosophy of joy and pleasure, this is wellbeing without restraint.

Set across three expansive floors, an unrivalled sanctuary unfolds. Featuring a swimming pool, bathhouse, treatment rooms, and state-of-the-art gyms and movement studios including two immersive digital rooms offering a dynamic mix of classes.

At its heart, an exceptional master-in-residence programme brings each space vividly to life, offering an experience that is as transformative as it is indulgent.

Encouraging social connection, Baeden House affirms Cambridge House as an exclusive gathering place for London.
