RESORT

A Santa Ynez Valley icon, The Inn at Mattei's Tavern celebrates its 1886 origins while creating a new luxury experience that connects community and strangers with a warm embrace. A sophisticated classic country inn, Mattei's Tavern connects us through culinary, wellness and one-of-a-kind experiences pioneering a new social hub for friends, couples and families alike.

LOCATION

Located in northern Santa Barbara County, Los Olivos is a bucolic town set in the rolling wine country of the Santa Ynez Valley, just 30 miles from Santa Barbara and 125 miles from Los Angeles. The Inn at Mattei's Tavern is set just off the main street of this mesmerizing old west town and walkable to many tasting rooms, galleries, restaurants and shopping.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Featuring guest rooms, suites and cottages, the Inn's new buildings blend seamlessly with the original 1886 structures which include the Hartley House, Los Olivos' first home. Each of the airy rooms and cottages feature private patios or terraces, maximizing the surrounding views and California's outdoor style of living.

DINING

The Inn at Mattei's Tavern features a vibrant dining scene and a buzzy calendar of weekly and annual social events that brings together guests and the locals at this classic California inn.

Felix Feed & Coffee a european style coffee shop with baked goods and light all day fare.
The Bar a tried and true western bar with roaring fireplace, dark hued cocktails and a satisfying menu of small and large bites.
The Tavern ranch inspired California cuisine driven by grilled dishes and fresh, locally harvested ingredients. The 3,000 bottle wine cellar holds best bottles from California and beyond.
Gin's Tap Bar serving local tap beers, wines and Chinese inspired cuisine with a nod to Gin, the original chef at Mattei's Tavern.
The Shed sophisticated in spirit, but relaxed in nature to deliver the ultimate wine country pool experience.

WELLNESS

The Lavender Barn, an Auberge Spa is an exploration of simple pleasures and the joy of living well. Inspired by the aromatic flowers, deep roots, rich soil, and the twilight skies of Los Olivos, it combines age-old remedies and bodywork with the essence of slow wellness. The spa menu offers the harvest's best with a local, hand-blended, plant-product range reflective of the season.
